You have been identified as a possible candidate for the Mission Court Docket. The Mission Court Docket is an intensive supervision program for individuals with prior or current military service. Participants may be considered for mandatory minimum sentences. The goal is to ensure Veterans become aware of treatment and assistance resources available to them through multiple agencies, that they are provided support to successfully complete case plans and that the Veteran can return to serve his or her country as a contributing citizen of the United States of America.

DISQUALIFICATION FACTORS

Not every offender will be eligible to participate in the Docket, even if the offender meets the legal and clinical criteria. The following items are disqualification factors to be considered:

- History of violent offenses
- Highly resistant to changing behavior in spite of previous interventions and/or punishments
- Lack of transportation
- Receiving Developmental Disability services or eligible for such services
- Transient residency
- Lives outside of Delaware County
- The offender's criminal history will be reviewed as part of the acceptance process. There are some prior offenses which categorically may exclude someone from the program if they pose a potential risk to court staff and the community.
- Legal issues regarding competency to stand trial or insanity defenses must be resolved before the offender can enter the Delaware Mission Court.

LEGAL ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Must have previously served or is currently serving in the US Military
- Misdemeanor charges pending in Delaware Municipal Court
- Is already on Community Control and subject to a Community Control Violation
- The offender has legal counsel;
- The offender may be appropriately treated in the community and is receptive to treatment for alcohol/substance abuse/addiction;
- The offender does not pose a significant risk of harm to court staff, treatment providers, or other persons working with the docket.

CLINICAL ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The offender must have a diagnosis of substance use disorder, mental health disorder, traumatic brain injury, post-traumatic stress disorder, or co-occurring disorders as defined in the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, Fifth Edition (DSM-5) and subsequent revisions. The offender must be amenable to treatment and acknowledge a willingness to comply with recommendations of his or her service providers based on the assessment reports.
